

Techniques of Future-Making

A Lecture Series of the Research Cluster "Society and Culture in Motion"

Political Bioethics

Guest Lecture by

Prof. Benjamin Gregg

(University of Texas at Austin)

Wednesday 22 May 2019

18:00 @ Lecture Theatre (Hörsaal) 13

Löwengebäude, Universitätsplatz 11

TOPIC: How should members of a liberal democratic political community, open to value pluralism, decide bioethical issues that generate deep disagreement?

Professor Benjamin Gregg teaches political and social theory at the University of Texas at Austin. He has published widely on social justice and human rights. He is currently writing a book titled Human Nature as Cultural Design: The Political Challenges of Genetic Enhancement.